

ROB TINLEY PARK BANK OF $3,000

Bandits Lock Cashier and Assistant In Toilet

The Bremen State Bank at Tinley Park was held up and robbed in broad daylight Wednesday morning about 9:30 o'clock by five armed bandits who got away with $3,000 in cash.

At the time of the robbery the village streets were deserted and no customers were in the bank. Mrs. Elizabeth Hardinger, the assistant cashier was alone in the bank when a stranger entered and inquired for a "Mr. Williams" saying he had an insurance matter to see him about. Mrs. Hardinger replied that quite a number of strangers had recently moved to the village and she did not know anyone by that name, but if he would inquire at the post office he might get the desired information. The stranger then said he had already been to the post office but could not obtain his information there, so he thought perhaps the banker might help him out. He inquired where the cashier was and was told he would be back in a few minutes, having only gone to the post office.

Ordered In Vault

Suddenly the stranger took hold of Mrs. Hardinger's arm and showing her a big revolver said, "Go in to the vault". Badly frightened, she did as she was told and was then told to face the wall. She pleaded with the bandit not to harm her brother, the cashier, and the bandit assured her no harm would be done. By this time two more bandits entered the bank, one assisting the first in scooping up the loose cash into a flour sack, while the other stood guard in the bank lobby. Outside one bandit stood guard on the walk while the fifth man was at the wheel of a big Reo touring car standing in front of the bank.

Used In Their Business

When Mrs. Hardinger first saw the man pull out a white flour sack she thought he was going to slip it over her head and when she asked him what he was going to do with it, the bandit replied, "We use this in our business."

Order Cashier Into Bank

In the meantime, J. C. Andres, cashier of the bank was coming from the post office and when near the bank he saw the big Reo car without a license plate standing in front of the bank while a man was standing alongside of it looking at the tires. Mr. Andres grew suspicious but kept on walking toward the bank and when opposite the car the stranger suddenly confronted Mr. Andres and in a low voice said "Do you value your life?" and when Mr. Andres replied "I do", the bandit poked a gun which he had in his coat pocket at the cashier and said "Then get in the bank quick". As Mr. Andres entered the bank the bandit guarding the lobby of the bank covered him and asked him if he was the cashier and when he answered he was he was then ordered into the vault with his sister but was warned not to raise his hands so that passersby in the street or on the walk would not see that a hold up was in progress. The bandits quickly scooped up all the cash they could find and one of them asked Mr. Andres "Is this all the money you got?" When told it was he then asked "Where is the sack of gold?" whereupon Mr. Andres replied he did not have any but the robber stuck the barrel of his revolver in Mr. Andres' neck and said "Give me that gold or I'll blow your head off". Mr. Andres then drew a sack of gold from a hiding place and handed it over to the bandit who asked for the second time if he had all the money and when told he had it all Mr. Andres and his sister were ordered in a rear room and warned if they touched any buttons or gave an alarm they would be killed. The bandits declared they knew the bank was well protected with a burglar alarm system. Then Mr. Andres and his sister were ordered into a toilet and locked in and the key was thrown away.

Come to Rescue

Just about the time the bandits were getting into their car, Carl Funk was coming out of the Hick & Mesenbrink meat market two doors north of the bank and saw one of the robbers carry a sack in the car. Mr. Funk quickly turned back to the market and told Fred Hick what he had seen and by this time the bandit car sped by heading northward. Both Mr. Funk and Mr. Hick hurried over to the bank and called Mr. Andres who answered and said where he was locked in. The pins were quickly removed from the hinges and the door was taken off and the bandits victims were freed.

Head toward Chicago

An alarm was quickly spread and the police in nearby towns and cities were notified. A fairly good description of the bandits was obtained, the leader being described as a short stocky fellow. All appeared to be young men. The speeding car was said to have gone north on the concrete to Keane Avenue thence up to 135th street and in to Chicago. The bandits had a ten minute start.

Get $3,000

The net booty secured was $3,000 in currency. Notes, stocks and other papers were strewn on the floor. One bond was grabbed up with some paper money and it is thought if the robbers should try to cash this bond it might be a means of tracing them. The bank is fully protected by burglar insurance so there will be no loss to the bank.

Maybe McHenry Bandits

A representative of the Illinois Bankers Association was out from Chicago by noon and said he thought this was the same gang which held up and robbed the McHenry bank several weeks ago.

As there was no money left in the bank to do business with, the bank was closed for the afternoon, but was reopened as usual Thursday morning.

Mr. Andres went with his sister to the detective bureau in Chicago Wednesday afternoon. A number of photographers for several Chicago papers came out and took pictures of Mr. Andres and of the bank.

SICK WOMEN ATTENTION!

Read this Remarkable Testimony Regarding Results from Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Norfolk, Virginia.—"If you only knew how many women and girls have taken your medicine by hearing my testimony, it would seem wonderful to you. Every day and every chance I have I try to give some one to try it. It was in June, 1904, when I had given up to never get well, that I wrote to you. My husband went to the drug-store and brought the Vegetable Compound home to me. In a few days I began to improve and I have often taken it since. I am now passing through the Change of Life and still stick by it and am enjoying wonderful health. When I first started with your medicine I was a mere shadow. My health seemed to be gone. The last doctor I had said he would give me no more local treatments unless I went to the Hospital and was operated on. That was when I gave the doctors up. Now I am a healthy robust woman. I wish I could tell the world what a wonderful medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is. I will be only too glad to answer letters from anywhere. I wish all sick women would take it."—Mrs. J. A. JONES, 317 Colley Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia.

PAUL'S FAREWELL AT MILETUS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 20:18-35.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."—Acts 20:35.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul a Loving Friend.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's Farewell at Miletus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—An Example of Faithfulness.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Responsibilities of Church Members.

After the uproar at Ephesus, the Jews laid wait for Paul to destroy him. This plot obligated him to retrace his steps through Macedonia instead of taking a more rapid sea voyage. He tarried with the disciples at Troas, meeting with them around the table of the Lord, and speaking words of encouragement to them. In order to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost, he did not go to Ephesus, but sent for the elders of the church at Ephesus to meet him at Miletus. The picture of Paul's farewell to the Ephesian elders is a very touching one. His object in this address was to impress upon them their responsibilities. The analysis of his address has been so well made by Doctor Stiffer that it is substantially reproduced here.

I. Paul Reviews His Three Years' Ministry at Ephesus (vv. 18-21).

1. The Spirit of His Ministry (v. 19).
(1) He was humble, "serving with all humility of mind."
(2) He was tender, working for them in tears.

(3) He was faithful in the face of trials which befell him because the Jews were lying in wait for him.

2. The Diligence of His Ministry (vv. 20-21).

(1) He made known everything which was of profit unto them. This every true minister or teacher will do.

(2) He taught both in public and in private. A minister's work is not done when his pulpit ministrations are over. The effectiveness of his public work is sometimes determined by his touch with the people in their homes.

(3) He neglected no class, whether Jews or Greeks. The Christian minister must minister to all.

3. The Theme of His Ministry (v. 21).

This was repentance and faith. Men and women need to repent of their sins and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.

II. Paul Presents the Present State of Things (vv. 22-27).

1. His Immediate Purpose (v. 22). This was to go to Jerusalem. The constraint of the Spirit moved him to go forward though he did not know the things that should befall him there.

2. The Shadows Lying Across His Path (v. 23).

Though bonds and afflictions awaited him, he went forward to his work with undaunted courage.

3. His Fixed Purpose (v. 24).

This was to complete his ministry, which was to testify the gospel of the grace of God which he had received from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4. A Sorrowful Prediction (v. 25).

Those among whom he had labored should see his face no more.

5. He Leaves No Debt of Obligation Behind (v. 26-27).

He was pure from the blood of all men.

III. Paul Sets Forth the Ephesian Elders' Responsibility (vv. 28-35).

1. Motives to Duty (v. 28).

(1) They received their call and commission directly from the Holy Spirit.

(2) The flock for which they must care was purchased with the precious blood of Christ.

(1) Perils Ahead (vv. 29-30).

(1) Grievous wolves would enter the flock and mercilessly devour them.

(2) False teachers would arise from among their number.

3. Incentives to Watch (v. 31).

Paul's own example. For three years he watched night and day with tears.

4. He Commends Them to God, and His Word (v. 32).

He knew that this Word was able to build them up.

5. He Was Unselfish in His Service (vv. 33-35).

(1) He did not covet any man's silver, gold or apparel.

(2) He labored with his own hands and taught.

IV. Paul's Prayer (vv. 36-38).

Having spoken these words he knelt and prayed with them all.

Patience

Patience is a beautiful trait, but it is not worn oftentimes by those who walk on life's sunny side in silver slippers. It is the product of days of adversity. "The trial of your faith worketh patience."—Evangelical Messenger.

Bread Creates "Pep"

A great scientist tells the value of bread as food. In McCall's Magazine, Dr. E. V. McCullum, of the school of hygiene and health of Johns Hopkins university, announces: "We eat for two distinct purposes. One is to keep the body healthy; the other to provide energy. We eat some foods primarily for their energy values. Bread is one of the latter foods."

WHY SHOULD ANYONE SUFFER WITH INDIGESTION OR ANY STOMACH MISERY?

If you want to fix up your dyspeptic, out of order stomach so that you can relish what you eat with not the least bit of after distress, do what tens of thousands of people have already done. Getting rid of gas, bloating, belching, heaviness and that feeling of near suffocation isn't such a hard matter as you may think—You've been getting hold of the wrong medicine—that's all. But better late than never—ask your druggist for a bottle of Dare's Menta-Pepsin—a real stomach medicine and a very pleasant one. For acute indigestion one or two doses is enough, but when the trouble is chronic, two or three bottles may be needed to put your disordered stomach in good healthy condition and make life worth living.

Making a start is the main thing, so why not get one bottle today with the distinct understanding that if it doesn't help you the purchase price will be returned.

Wanted Larger Size

HOW TO KEEP WELL

DR. FREDERICK R. GREEN
Editor of "HEALTH"

(©, 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

PLUMBING AND HEALTH

MODERN plumbing, like modern dentistry, is practically an American invention. The average home in this country is far superior to those in other countries in heating, ventilating, lighting, the disposal of waste and the supplying of water. Even the cheapest flats and tenement houses here have household conveniences which few families in European countries enjoy.

The object of plumbing systems in the house is twofold: the removal of individual and household waste and the furnishing of pure water for household purposes, for drinking and bathing.

When we first began to look for the causes of diseases, much attention was given to sewerage. Many diseases, such as typhoid, pneumonia, scarlet fever and diphtheria, were attributed to air from drains. This was a survival of the old belief in the existence of "miasms," "effluvia," noxious vapors and bad air, which caused disease. "Defective plumbing" was a popular explanation of disease epidemics.

We know now that the possibility of disease being caused by the air from drains and sewers is practically negligible. If drain pipes carrying away sewage and water pipes carrying in water are so leaky as to allow the sewage to get into the water pipe, typhoid fever may result, as generally happens when drinking water is polluted by sewage.

But most diseases caused by germs are passed from one person directly to another. They are not carried by air, neither are they caused by bad air. Constant breathing of air laden with sewer gas might possibly cause lowered resistance to disease, although even this is by no means certain.

Plumbing methods and materials have made great advances in the last 25 years. We all remember the old zinc-lined boxed-in bathtubs, wash-bowls and kitchen sinks, in which leaking pipes kept the floors and walls water-soaked, causing bad smells, cockroaches and water bugs. Present-day open plumbing, in which all pipes are uncovered, porcelain or enameled bathtubs and sinks and better methods of soldering and joining pipes, have made the bathroom and the kitchen the most sanitary rooms in the whole house.

But to keep the plumbing in the house in good working order requires constant care and watchfulness. The soil and waste pipes should be kept free, so that a constant current of air prevents odors. Traps and drain pipes should be frequently flushed out with a hot solution of ammonia or washing soda to prevent them from being stopped up by accumulated grease, and cracks and breaks should be promptly repaired. Defective plumbing does not cause disease, but it may cause a great deal of discomfort.

THE UNIVERSAL FOOD

BREAD has been the most important food of the human race and probably always will continue to be. Whatever variety of fruits and vegetables the Luther Burbanks of the future may develop or however the improvement of transportation may make it possible to ship foods all over the world, bread will always be, literally as well as poetically, the staff of life.

While man was a wandering animal he lived on the meat of animals and on wild fruits and vegetables. But as soon as he established a home and settled in one spot, he began planting grain. Even the wandering Indians planted a field of corn in the spring and halted until the corn had grown and ripened. The World War showed that no matter how great a nation's wealth in gold or silver, steel or cotton, it was strong only in proportion to its bread supply.

The amount of bread needed by the different nations varied widely, depending on the habits of their people. In Italy, where bread or its equivalents in the form of macaroni and spaghetti forms a large part of the food supply of the people, 90 per cent of the required food supply was in the form of bread. France needed 60 per cent of her food in the form of bread. One-half or 50 per cent of England's food was bread. So under all the need for iron, powder and other war supplies was the stern necessity of getting enough wheat to Europe, in spite of the German U boats, to give the people of the allied nations enough bread to keep them alive.

This country has never been a bread-eating nation as have the older countries of Europe. The quantity and variety of food in the United States is such that only about 35 per cent of our food is bread. This, according to Dr. Graham Lusk, one of the leading food authorities, is because the comparatively low price of food and the high wages paid in this country make it possible for most of our people to buy the most expensive foods.

For bread is a cheap food, when measured by its heat-producing and nourishing value. As Dr. Alonzo Taylor of the University of Pennsylvania says, "Bread is our cheapest food, for it gives us one-third more nourishment for one-tenth the cost."

CANADA is the Land of Promise to-day. Canada promises prosperity, health and happiness to those who come prepared and determined to work. And, on her promises, Canada makes good. If you are strong and willing, you can make yourself independent in Canada, no matter if your cash capital is small.

Take the Case of C. A. Dunning

C. A. Dunning came to the Province of Saskatchewan in 1903. He was an immigrant boy from England, only seventeen years old, not over strong, no money, no knowledge of agriculture. But he wanted to work and he was looking for a job in Saskatchewan, as a start. He was determined to make good.

He got the job. It was on a new farm in Saskatchewan, thirty miles from the end of the railway. His pay was $10.00 per month and board. He lived in a sod shack and slept on the floor. To-day, Charles A. Dunning is Premier of Saskatchewan, Chief Executive and Leader of the Provincial Government, and one of the most successful farmers in Canada.

A Great Country

Canada is a great, rich, varied country with the glorious power and vitality of youth. She is already the greatest exporter of wheat in the world, although only about one-fifth of her good farm land has as yet been brought under cultivation. Canada's wheat crop in 1924 was 262,000,000 bushels; in 1925 it is officially estimated at 391,000,000 bushels—an increase of 129,000,000 bushels. Other branches of farming—dairying, stock-raising, etc.—are increasing proportionately. Canada is increasingly rich in beef and dairy cattle, in horses and sheep, and in poultry. C. A. Dunning has shared in this development and prospered accordingly.

C. A. Dunning's story of success on the farm can be multiplied thousands of times in the different Provinces of Canada. Do YOU want to get ahead? Do YOU want to succeed and make a home for yourself on a low-cost farm where you can prosper and be independent? Come to Canada, the land of bigger crops and cheaper, richer land. Officers of the Canadian Government will help you, free of charge, to get suitably located; if desired they will supervise your start and give you all the help and counsel you may ask. Good land near the railroads sells at from $15.00 to $20.00 per acre. Free homesteads farther back. Full particulars will be found in the Canada Books issued by the Government. Send for one today. They're free. Use this coupon. Opportunity is knocking at your door.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

ORLAND

ORLAND M. E. CHURCH
Elmer L. Setterlund, Pastor

On Friday November 13th, the famous production "Way Down East" will be given at the church at 7:30. The following Friday evening, November 20th, the very well known and recent masterpiece of the screen, "The Lost World" will be given. See further announcements elsewhere. Every show from now on is a big one.

Sunday November 15th. Bible school at 9:30 A. M. Our Sunday School is becoming a most important phase of our church activities. New interest is shown. There are classes for all ages. You should not fail to avail yourself of moral and religious instruction, nor neglect your children. If you are not enrolled elsewhere and live in this vicinity we welcome you to join with us.

The morning worship is at 10:30. Because of the unusual interest shown in the pastor's sermon on Sunday morning November 1st, on the theme, "How Men Find God", the pastor has decided to follow up this discussion with one related to it, namely, "Why Do We Not Really Know God At Once?" Does God try to evade humanity. Why should it be so difficult to know anything definitely concerning God? Has the Creator made it purposely difficult for men to find out something definite concerning Him? This is a theme worth our consideration.

The evening service on the 15th is one of unusual interest. A moving picture film featuring some things from the life and work of our great American poet, H. W. Longfellow will be shown, followed by an address on the life and work of Longfellow. Do not miss this treat.

On Sunday evening Nov. 22nd, another scientific film will be shown followed by a discussion on "Being Pulled In." Come and consider this unusual and vital theme.

On Saturday evening October 31 Miss Myrick's class of young ladies gave a Halloween party at the church. There was a splendid attendance of young people. A number of characteristic games were enjoyed and fortunes were told. Refreshments finished the evening's festivities and everyone reported the event as most successful.

On Thursday preceding Halloween a number of the members of the Women's Guild, assisted in some cases by their husbands, spent the day in cleaning the church. New rugs were placed on the pulpit platform, a gift from the Adult Bible Class. The pastor publicly expressed his appreciation of this work at the morning service.

The choir is trying to get started for its fall work and also beginning to think of the question of a musical for the Christmas holidays. It is expected that our singers will be organized for work very soon.

John McCord living northwest of here sold his farm of 200 acres recently to Chicago real estate men for $225 per acre. Albert has also sold his farm of 80 acres for $200 per acre to a Chicago real estate dealer.

Halloween was very quietly observed in Orland this year in comparison to other years. Windows were soaped and a few gates and buggies disappeared or were upset but little property damage resulted.

TINLEY PARK

C. F. Bettenhausen well known Frankfort township farmer who is contemplating locating in Tinley Park was quietly married to Miss Ana Ackerman of Germany last Friday evening at the German M. E. parsonage in Tinley Park, Rev. Jochum officiating. The bride came direct from Germany to Tinley Park and was met at the local depot by the groom and the couple proceeded directly to the parsonage mentioned.

Monday evening a large company of friends and relatives gathered at the newly weds home and started to give them a shivaree when the new groom asked them not to make any noise on account of the illness of a member of the family. He gave the merry makers a check for $30 and they all had a good time.

Our sugar beet raisers are very busy these days shipping their big crop of beets to the sugar factory at Riverdale. So far this week nearly a carload of beets a day have been shipped out.

Miss Eleanor Devol of Tinley Park spent Friday with Mrs. Arthur Beagley at Orland.

Not being able to stand the strain of his old job he has been given the position of desk sergeant at the county high way police headquarters at Homewood and goes to and from his work each day. He worked in Chicago a day or two the past week but the smoke and gas was too much for him.

Worth

The bazaar held at the Worth Community Church on October 22 was a decided success. Although the display of merchandise and beautiful handiwork was greater than ever before, the crowd was far beyond expectations and every thing was sold in a few hours. The ladies of Worth have always been famous for their delicious suppers and the one served on this occasion surpassed all others. Everyone in the community did their share to make this bazaar a success. Let's put this spirit of fellowship into all our activities and make Worth a better place to live.

The Volunteer Fire Department held a dance in Hildebrand's Hall on Saturday, October 31st. The music was very good and the good things to eat and the favors, along with the congenial firmen who always do their best to make every one have a good time, helped to make a very enjoyable evening for all those who attended.

The Sunday evening Club is growing. Lillian Kaufman is now a full fledged member, joining our group on November 1st. The Club also had the pleasure of entertaining the Misses Selma and Augusta Bauml of Chicago and Mr. David Cathcart of Evanston who took Mr. Sanders place in his absence. The Club has some thing worth while to contribute to the community and is striving to make every young man and woman in Worth an active member.

OAK LAWN

There have been many noteworthy moves made in Oak Lawn last week. The Oak Lawn Painting and Decorating Co., moved into their new quarters in the Emery Block and now carry a fine line of paints, wall paper etc besides a new department of the nature of 5c & 10c stores.

Bushfield's Restaurant moved in to the same Block and in their new home one finds it pleasure dine, and last but not least the Post Office too moved to the same Block and now carries a fine line of periodicals and Men's and Boy's Wear.

Due to the fact that a letter mailed from Oak Lawn last Tuesday to the News-Bulletin with news which should have been published, but has not yet reached its destination, they were not published.

District 122 Public School

Miss McClaghry paid us another visit on Wednesday Oct. 28 and informed us that our achievement meeting could be held on either the 20th or 24th of November. Owing to the fact that the date will come so close to Thanksgiving, we have decided to combine our achievement and Thanksgiving programs and charge a small admission fee for the purpose of raising a fund with which to buy some good books for our school library. Our pupils are badly in need of a supply of good reading material and we are going to do our best to provide it for them. Further announcements will appear in this column later.

On Friday afternoon, Oct. 30th an entertainment was given by the little folks in Mrs. Simmons' room. A great number of the mothers attended and all had a pleasant time together. We were glad of the opportunity of getting acquainted and certainly appreciate the good spirit friendship interest and co-operation shown by all the parents of this district.

Everyone went away feeling that it was good to be there. We were also pleased to have the piano duet by Wm. and Edith Theres of Oak Lawn and the violin solos by Albert Chiapetti, also of Oak Lawn. They are taking their musical instruction from Mr. and Mrs. Simmons and are surely doing well.

Our first ball season ended Friday and that with a tie score. A hard fought game on Monday morn

Announcement

Miss Mable Miess announces the opening of her hemstitching notions and needlework shop, on the corner of 95th Street and 51st Ave. After November 15 the store will be open Thursday and Saturday evenings until nine o'clock. Come in before you do your Christmas shopping.

Orders for Christmas will be taken up to December 15.

ing broke the tie with a score of 5 2 in favor of Crystal Kluck's team.

We have now reorganized for another season of four weeks with Clarence Woodrich and Henry Schenkel as captains and Crystal Kluck as umpire. We are doing our best to train ourselves in fair play and good sportsmanship.

If the children deal fairly with each other, as they grow up, they are more apt to deal fairly with each other, as neighbors, after they have grown up.
